

Join the Call, Toilets for All! World Water Day Public Action on Parliament Hill

Join us as we deliver to Canada's seat of power dozens of signed toilet seats.

SWAN Canada is calling on the government of Canada to do its fair share to ensure that the world's poorest and most vulnerable people gain access to safe drinking water and basic sanitation.

DATE: World Water Day - Sunday, March 22nd

TIME: 1:00pm

LOCATION: Parliament Hill

SPEAKERS:

Paul Dewar- MP and Foreign Affairs Critic

Kate White- Executive Director, United Nations Association of Canada

George Yap- International Program Director, WaterCan

Robert Fox- Executive Director, Oxfam Canada

Chris Dendys- Executive Director, Results Canada

Sponsored by the Sanitation and Water Action Network (SWAN) Canada www.swanCanada.org

Clean water and basic sanitation are the building blocks of social and economic development in every society around the world. Yet, 900 million people continue to lack access to safe drinking water and a further 2.5 billion lack access to basic sanitation. The achievement of universal access to safe drinking water and basic sanitation is achievable, politically feasible and ethically imperative.